Paul Moradian, Esq.

Mediator

Paul Moradian has practiced law for over 20 years at large and small firms, and has litigated a wide variety of cases from complex intellectual property cases to simple personal injury cases. After focusing on intellectual property at a large firm, he established his law firm, where he litigates personal injury, medical malpractice, nursing home, wrongful termination, and intellectual property cases. His love for resolution and helping those in need has led him to become a mediator focusing on complex disputes. He has experience handling local and international cases and is willing to go as far as he can to help his clients.
